

Spring 2010
Registration Form

See instruction for address & fee

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Conference _____

Course Selection

_____ Jesus and the Gospels

_____ Church History

Lodging

_____ Yes, I need lodging

_____ Individual

_____ Married Couple

_____ No, I do not need lodging

Other Classes Needed

Please list other classes that you would like to see offered.

Upcoming Modules

A-term 2010 - August 2 - 6

- Classes to be offered are not finalized yet.

Scholarships

Check with your conference or local church for possible availability.

Questions

Call: 814-676-6611 or 814-677-0985

email: chris.chillpa@verizon.net

www.pleasantvillecamp.net

Directions

Pleasantville Camp is located on Rt. 227 E (260 3rd St), Pleasantville, PA. (Venango County) 1 hr. S. of Erie; 2½ hrs. N. of Pittsburgh; 2½ hrs. E. of Akron, OH and 1 hr. S. of Jamestown, NY

Pleasantville Camp

260 Third St. (Rt 227 E.)

Pleasantville, PA 16341

814-589-7978 - camp manager

www.pleasantvillecamp.net

Courses for Leadership,
Deacon

Consecration or Elders Ordination
in the
Free Methodist Church

Spring 2010
Module

March 26-27 & April 30 - May 1

Presented by

Keystone Conference
Ministerial Education
and Guidance Board

And

Pleasantville Camp's
Center for Training and Renewal

Spring Module Courses

Jesus and the Gospels (Biblical Studies)

2 credit hours - tuition $ 90.00

Rev. Dr. Timothy Dwyer
*Professor of Christian
Scriptures at Roberts
Wesleyan College*

A study of the life and ministry of Christ as portrayed in the four gospels. Historical, geographical, and theological issues will be highlighted. Each student will study how the diverse portraits of Jesus in the four gospels present a coherent portrait of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Church History (Systematic Theo.)

3 credit hours - tuition $ 135.00

Rev. T. Christopher Hill
Lead Pastor at Free Methodist Church of Oil City

This course is an overview of church history from the time of the apostles to the present. It will focus on persons, movements and theological issues that have shaped the church historically. The student will complete several projects which will take their observations from the class and prepare materials that can be used in contemporary ministry settings.

Schedule

Friday

5:00 - Check-in
5:30 - Class
10:00 - Rest

Saturday

7:30 - Breakfast & Devotions
8:00 - Class
12:00 - Lunch
1:00 - Course
4:00 - Head for home

You MUST attend both weekends to receive credit for the class!

Cost

These fees cover the expenses for both weekends of a module.

Lodging	Individual	$60.00
	Married Couple	$80.00

Meals (per person)	$45.00
--------------------	---------

Tuition	see class listing
---------	-------------------

Registration

Registration is limited. Send the completed registration form with a $25 deposit (not an additional fee) payable to Keystone Conference to: PCTR, 202 Wilson Ave., Oil City, PA 16301

Upon registration you will receive a list of books and the assignments that need to be completed before arriving for the first weekend.